Kia Ora Kia Orana Talofa Lava Greetings

Dear Parents / Caregivers,

As we come to the end of a very busy Term 3, it is important that we do ensure all students are attending each day unless they are sick. As you will be aware, next week is Operetta withdrawal week and there will be some disruption to classes. However, it is important that the school operates as normal as possible during this time.

The matinees for Primary Schools will be held on Friday 19th and Monday 22nd September. The public performances are advertised in this newsletter. Please support the large number of students that have put a great deal of effort into this show.

Phil Straw, Principal

MUFTI DAY

The school student council is active raising funds for good courses through Mufti Days. There will be a Mufti Day tomorrow, 11th September. Every child in mufti has to bring $1.00. The money raised goes to the Child Cancer Foundation.

POLY FESTIVAL

The local schools' Poly Festival will be held this weekend. Unfortunately the dates of the Polyfest for 2008 have been changed and clashed with our Operetta. Our groups will therefore not perform in this event but we will find an opportunity in Term 4 for parents and friends to enjoy the work of our groups.
