Kia Ora Kia Orana Talofa Lava Greetings

Dear parents / caregivers,

Welcome back to school after the long weekend. I hope that everybody is refreshed and ready for the second half of term 2.

Electives start this Friday. These activities are the formal start for our Kapa Haka and Polynesian groups. They will be practicing from this Friday onwards along with the cast involved in the operetta.

Those students not involved in these three activities have been allocated another option from the wide range on offer. All students are committed to their option for six weeks and changes will not be made until week 2 of Term 3. Please enquire from your child what elective they are in and what they are learning each week.

Phil Straw, Principal

NETBALL

Next Thursday 10th June we will host the annual Inter Waikato Intermediate Netball Tournament. History would suggest some very exciting games at this event, if you wish to visit the courts.

PARENT INTERVIEWS

Mid Year Reports are due to be issued at our parent interview evenings on the 30th June and 1st July. Please keep one of these days free to enable you to attend an interview and receive feedback about your child's progress.

WAIKATO HOCKEY

The Turf Hockey team travelled to Hamilton yesterday to participate in the Waikato Intermediate Schools' annual tournament. The many hours of training along with successive wins in their Friday night competition saw the team come runners up in their pool and fourth over all.

Their performance both on and off the field was very commendable and surprise was expressed that an out of town team was placed in the top four Waikato teams. Special thanks to "past" turf team members, who came to support us and reminisce of days gone by, Duane Horn, Nicole and Leah Coffin, Latia and Walter Downey. Thanks to Mr & Mrs Horn and Mrs Sawford, who assisted with transport and support throughout the day. The team was: Corben Brown, Nicole Chettleburgh, Grace Coffin, Theresa Downey, Ethan Jansen, Kasey Jones, Rebecca Muir, Carlos Paaki, Daniel Ria, Natasha Samson, Jayden Sawford, Truice and Edwin Sinclair, Dean Smith-Holley and Tyrin Stuart.

Kitty Moon – Teacher in Charge of Hockey
